

Electronic Technician

Base Pay: $14 - $18 Hourly DOE

Employment Type

Full-Time

Why Work Here?

"Fast growing company with room for growth!"

Description:

Technician will evaluate, test, troubleshoot, and repair to the component level.

Responsibilities:

- Inspect, test, and diagnose product for malfunctions using specialized test equipment and software.
- Evaluate, troubleshoot and repair return product to the component level
- Determine whether products have defective components or assemblies and repair or replace defective units using appropriate tools and following proper repair procedures.
- Provide quality service with a responsive turnaround time for repairs
- Quality Assurance including: pre-testing; final testing; and logging, organizing, and maintaining test data
- Ability to read and understand schematics, Assembly & PCB CAD Documents
- Must be skilled at soldering, de-soldering components and circuit board modifications
- Must be able to use industry standard test equipment, such as multimeters, oscilloscopes and power meters

Experience:

2+ years related experience in electronic repair